

Your community resource for mediation, facilitation, and conflict resolution.

Position Announcement

Program Coordinator Group Facilitation

DSC seeks a Coordinator to lead its Group Facilitation Program. The Program helps government, business, nonprofit, and community groups improve communication, problem-solving, conflict resolution, deliberation, dialogue and stakeholder participation through multi-party mediation, collaborative process design, conflict assessment, facilitation, and related training and consultation.

The Coordinator will develop, lead, and manage a variety of projects, for example:

- Facilitation projects for businesses and organizations;
- Stakeholder processes for state and local governments;
- Complex, high profile mediations over environmental, development, human services, public safety, and other issues;
- Annual retreats for elected boards or nonprofits; and
- Community dialogue processes.

We are looking for a dynamic professional with experience in disciplines such as conflict resolution, planning, public policy, public health or business.

DSC is an established community-based, not for profit mediation center based in Carrboro, North Carolina that provides a wide variety of dispute resolution services in court, schools, businesses, workplaces, and civic organizations. DSC's geographic focus is the Triangle area of North Carolina, with a growing number of projects and opportunities across the state.

Salary: Negotiable + health care allocation; 22 paid days off; creative, collaborative, and flexible work environment. The position is full-time, exempt. We seek applicants from diverse backgrounds. Send cover letter and CV to Frances Henderson at fhenderson@disputesettlement.org.